Iran launches three satellites into space

- Iran said that it successfully launched three satellites into space with a rocket that had multiple failures in the past, the latest for a program that the West says improves Tehran's ballistic missiles.
- The launch comes as heightened tensions grip the wider West Asia over Israel's continued war on Hamas in the Gaza Strip, sparking fears of a regional conflict.
- The launched satellites named Mahda, Kayhan-2 and Hatef-1.
- It described the Mahda as a research satellite, while the Kayhan and the Hatef were nano satellites focused on global positioning and communication respectively.
- Iran's Information and Communications Technology Minister Isa Zarepour said the Mahda had already sent signals back to Earth.

Iran:

- Capital: Tehran
- President: Ebrahim Raisi
- Currency: Iranian rial

Q. Which country has recently launched Mahda, Kayhan-2 and Hatef-1 satellites? Iran
